

Public Art Commission Brief – Appendix A

Images 1-19: views of the Severn Street former factory site and approaches

Image 20: Site Plan with locations of viewpoints 1-19 marked

1. Looking down Severn Street as approached from Worcester City Centre with Museum of Royal Worcester on left and historic porcelain factory buildings visible in distance – now Royal Porcelain Works complex

2. The Museum of Royal Worcester from Severn Street and entrance to former factory site, now landscaped courtyard area

Former Porcelain Works Site – Public Art Opportunity 2023

3. Courtyard/Plaza area from Severn Street looking towards Henry Sandon Hall, former factory showroom, now performance/event venue part of Royal Porcelain Works complex

4. Looking from Henry Sandon Hall towards the Museum of Royal Worcester and Severn Street gateway

5. Looking towards independent GoodRoots Café in historic factory buildings from Museum side of courtyard

6. Looking towards Museum buildings from Café side/approach from Severn Street gateway

7. View of Museum Entrance with Royal Porcelain Works buildings and Severn Street gateway behind

8. View of Museum Entrance from coach bays

9. Looking at side of Henry Sandon Hall from Museum coach bays

10. Looking towards Museum of Royal Worcester, Henry Sandon Hall and courtyard from King Street vehicle and pedestrian access

11. Looking at Slip House, office premises, from King Street access, Museum of Royal Worcester on right

12. Looking at Princes Drive Housing Development (Berkeley Homes), Slip House on right, Museum of Royal Worcester behind

13. Looking down Princes Drive with Bone Mill on right

14. View of historic factory buildings including Bone Mill with chimney at the top of Princes Drive

15. Undeveloped centre of site with Gilding House in background

16. Courtyard area beside canal, looking towards the Gilding House

17. View of canal from courtyard along Princes Drive

18. View of Portland Street gateway to the former factory site, looking up Princes Drive towards Gilding House and Bone Mill

19. Detail of former factory building and factory sign at Portland Street gateway

20. SITE PLAN WITH LOCATIONS OF VIEWPOINTS 1-19 MARKED

